Pain In Back & Sides

"FOR A LONG TIME," says Mrs. Dora Payne, of Huntington, Tenn., "I felt listless, tired and worn-out. I did not feel like doing my work, visiting or anything.

"I suffered much pain in my back and sides. My limbs hurt, my knees would tremble without apparent cause and I would have to sit down. . . .

"I was very nervous. . . . I would have a tired, dull headache. . . .

"I had read so much about Cardui I asked my husband to get it for me. The very first bottle seemed to help me. After the second . . . I was better than I had been in months. I certainly can praise Cardui.

"I have taken three bottles. Now I hardly wait, when the sun shines, to garden. I am feeling fine."

Similar results to those described above have been reported by thousands of other women. Cardui's 40 years of success should encourage you to give it a thorough trial for the relief of any common female ailments. For sale everywhere.

IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

Happenings in Various Sections Of Old Virginia

NEWS ITEMS FOR OUR READERS

Lynchburg.—Apparently, expecting a rather lucrative haul, a thief who broke into one of the stores of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company here left a note telling the manager that if more money could be left in the register he would return again. The thief found a dime in the cash register after breaking into the store.

Ashland.—The student body of Randolph-Macon College recently presented President R. B. Blackwell a handsome silver loving cup bearing an appropriate inscription on the occasion of birthday anniversary. The student presentation was made through M. H. Barton, of Hampton, chairman of the student body.

Danville.—G. P. Asbury, formerly of Charlotte, has assumed his duties in Danville as superintendent of maintenance and way of the Southern Railway Company in the northern division. He succeeds G. L. Sitton, who recently was promoted to the post of chief engineer of maintenance of way and structures at Charlotte.

Lynchburg.—Foremen of industrial plants here have formed the Lynchburg Foremen's Club, with the following officers: President, S. B. Hammer; vice-president, L. B. Leonard; secretary-treasurer, W. S. Clark, and directors, Lawrence Green, J. H. Underhill, B. R. Nelsen, H. L. Thompson, Charles H. Hoyt and L. O. Old.

Lynchburg.—D. H. Dalton, of Altavista, was fined $50 and costs and given thirty days in the Municipal Court here on a charge of transporting three quarts of liquor. An automobile used at the time was captured and confiscated. M. L. Sharp was fined $50 and costs and given thirty days suspended jail sentence on the charge of giving liquor to a minor.

Louisa.—Howard Sharpe, a young farmer of this county, was found dead in the road near Pendleton. The young man was driving a car from near Bowles' Store, where he lived, and was apparently alone. It has not yet been determined if there is to be an inquest. The one puzzling thing is, how the body was thrown from the car and the car overturned after he had been thrown out.

University.—The Jefferson Society of the University of Virginia held its election for officers for next term in their historic hall on West Range. The election was a spirited one. E. W. Gregory, Jr., of Chase City, Va., was declared president after elaborate balloting. T. A. McEachern, Jr., of Greenville, Miss., was elected vice-president, and F. W. Quarles, Jr., of Charlottesville, secretary.

Pulaski.—J. F. Wysor, county treasurer, states that the payment of taxes in Pulaski county to December 1, the date when the 5 per cent. penalty is attached, was the same as for last year, though not so good as some of the years preceding 1922. The percentages of taxes collected this year was 88.8 per cent. of the amount levied, the same as in 1923, while in 1922 it was 87.4 per cent.; in 1921, 89.5 per cent.; in 1920, 91.7 per cent. The total amount of the State and county taxes to be collected this year is $190,416.94, of which $168,994.94 was collected, leaving uncollected $22,322, on which the 5 per cent. penalty is added. Of this delinquent tax $5,026.94 is State and $17,295.06 county.

Danville.—The first definite step toward the rearing of a permanent monument to the sixty Danville men who died in the war was taken when Commander Thomas Fox, of the Danville Post, American Legion, appointed the War Memorial Commission which will recommend the character of the memorial, its site and the ways and means of materializing the project. It will probably be spring before a report is made. The commission will have to decide between a nonutilitarian monument and a building for public usage. Colonel Sidney W. Minor is chairman of the commission, other members being F. Hamilton Vass, Murray Hart, Milton Herman, Herman Hubbard, Waverly Cousins and J. Walter Soules.

Danville, Va.—James Davis, a negro truancy, was stabbed in the abdomen Sunday by Gordon Harrison, white, in the city jail. Harrison had been ordered to the dungeon, a dark cell, because the jailor said he was creating a disturbance. Davis was bolting the door, when Harrison put his arm through a small aperture and cut the negro. Davis was removed to a hospital, where the wound was treated. He probably will recover. Harrison, according to Jailor Harper Chandler, had the knife concealed in his sock.

Pulaski.—Claims from practically every county in Bristol and Salem districts were presented to the State Highway Commission sitting here to consider allocation funds and distribution of the 5¼ per cent. mileage in these districts, which includes Bedford and counties west thereof. The Bristol district allocation is $875,000 and Salem $420,000. Shriners Southwest counties send large delegations in their behalf.

Lynchburg.—S. C. Robinson, gage agent at the Bear Mills, a saw mill street establishment, was fined $25 in the Municipal Court here under charge of storing gasoline in the store in an open container. This the evidence showed, was the cause of the fire in the store Monday which blew the plate glass front out and did considerable damage before it was stopped by the Fire Department.

Lynchburg.—Illness of Judge W. R. Barksdale, of the Circuit Court of Campbell County, now a patient at the Virginia Baptist Hospital here, will delay the program of the city for annexation of suburbs in Campbell and Bedford County—for Judge Barksdale is held to be a member of the court of three judges to sit in the case, no provision being made for a designated judge to sit for him. This means that the county will make the new realty assessment next year and that this will be the basis of taxation for the first five years after the annexation becomes effective.

Staunton.—Virginia has scenic and historic assets that are unequaled in any other State, and we haven't begun to realize them," Junius J. Flahburne, of Roanoke, president of the Virginia Historic Highway Association, told the Staunton Rotary Club in an address on the highway his association is exploiting. "It would open your eyes to see what one of the progressive Western States would do with such assets," the Roanoker exclaimed. "If a Western State had the Natural Bridge, Monticello, Appomattox, Yorktown, it would make the fact of wall known that half the world would come to see them."

Fredericksburg.—Justin H. Loving, nephew of Judge Loving, formerly of Warren county, is in jail here charged with felonious shooting of George Mac Mullen, who is at Mary Washington Hospital with a .32-caliber rifle ball lodged in the muscles of his head, following an altercation between the two men at the MacMullin home. Mac-Mullen will probably recover. His life probably was saved by his folding his arms across his breast just as Loving fired, causing the ball first to go through a portion of his left arm before it reached his body. This broke the force of the missile.

Winchester. — Clyde Pingley, 18, was remanded to jail by Magistrate Worsley, pending a conference with State's counsel, after he had been arrested on a charge of soliciting orders for liquor. Police said they heard that Pingley approached a man in a poolroom and asked him if he would like to buy some good liquor. Pingley, they said, told the man it could be supplied at the rate of $3 a quart, but by taking a considerable amount at one time a lower price would be quoted. Pingley's arrest is said to have been the first made by a city official violating that section of the State prohibition laws dealing with soliciting.

Winchester.—Dinner plates, identified as having been purchased at a five and ten-cent store, brought $2 and $4 at the concluding auction sale of the goods and chattels of the late Misses Shumate, rich spinsters, whose deaths occurred recently. So eager were antique fans in their determination to buy something in the house where no less than $15,000 in gold and paper money has been found secreted since the last of the Shumate sisters died. Five Wedgewood plates, however, were bought by J. H. Stiles, of York, Pa., for $19. The same man paid $76 for a small mirror and $41 for another. Bidding for antiques was so frantic at times that it was quite difficult to keep the sales records straight.

Staunton.—Masters of this section are inclined to take issue with the statement accredited to Chief Game Commissioner McDonald, Lee that game is more abundant in Virginia than for years. The statement of Commissioner Lee that "in the mountainous parts of Virginia deer-hunters are more plentiful than for years" is particularly opposed. Thirty-odd of the leading hunters of this section have been questioned as to game conditions west of the Blue Ridge. They agree that quail is fairly plentiful and turkeys about as usual, but that pheasants are scarcer than they have been in the past decade. Deer are practically a thing of the past they agree, while bear signs in the mountains are unusually numerous.

Winchester, Va.—Mrs. Laura Kmer, sen., about 48 years old, was struck and almost instantly killed near her home, at Inwood, W. Va., by a bakery truck driven by George Smith, Martinsburg, Va., on his way to Winchester. Smith said Mrs. Monson apparently was walking out of the way of another machine when she came directly in the path of his truck. Mrs. Monson is survived by her husband, a painter, employed in Washington, and one daughter.

Lesson for December 21

CHRISTMAS LESSON—GOD'S GIFT TO THE WORLD

LESSON TEXT—John 1:1-18; 3:16-21.

GOLDEN TEXT—"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life."—John 3:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Birth of Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Gift of God's Love.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Christ Came to Earth.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The World's Need of Christ.

The lesson committee has suggested alternative lessons for today, namely: "The Conversion of Zaccheus" or "God's Gift to the World." Since we so rarely get a Christmas lesson from the Gospel of John, it is most fitting that we avail ourselves of this opportunity.

I. The Declaration of God (John 1:14-18).

1. By Whom (v. 14)? The Word. The historic person Jesus Christ is called the Word of God because He is the expression of God to men. The Word of God has declared himself in Jesus Christ. Observe:

(1) That Jesus Christ is a person, separate and distinct from the Father, yet there exists an inseparable union between them (v. 1).

(2) He is eternal (v. 2). He was with God in the beginning. He did not begin to exist when the heavens and the earth were created. He was before all things (Col. 1:17).

(3) He is God (v. 1). He is not only a being equal with God but one in essence with Him.

(4) He is the omnipotent Creator (v. 3) by whom were all things made, the world and all things therein.

(5) He is the Source of all life (v. 4). He is the eternal fountain from which all life has been derived. All living beings have derived their life from Him—are dependent upon Him for the maintenance of life.

(6) He is the Light of men (v. 4). The light of reason came from Him.

2. How Made (v. 14). Through sin, man who was made in the likeness and image of God, lost knowledge and touch with God. The supreme need, therefore, was a tangible revelation, one we could touch and handle, that is, verify with the senses. This was done through the incarnation of the Word. Jesus Christ is not merely a representative of God, but He is absolutely and essentially God. It was the eternal Word who became flesh. In the virgin birth of Christ God became incorporated with humanity. He did not merely become a Jew. He was the "Son of Man." His relation is racial.

3. The Witnesses (vv. 15-17).

(1) The Baptist (v. 15). John the Baptist was the herald of the eternal Word who was the revealer of God.

(2) John the Evangelist and His Fellow Disciples (v. 16). Their experience of God's grace of salvation was the proof of the coming of God's supreme relative.

4. The Need (v. 18). Sinful man was blind, therefore could not perceive God. If man was ever to know God, God must adapt Himself to man's need.

II. The Supreme Reason Why God Revealed Himself (John 3:16-21).

1. His Great Love (v. 16). Primarily God's boundless affection which prompted Him to give Himself as the Savior of men. Concerning this salvation note:

(1) Its origin. "God so loved the world." It proceeded out of the loveheart of God.

(2) Its ground. "He gave His only begotten Son." Son's salvation rests upon the death of Christ.

(3) Its recipients. "Whosoever believeth." That means whosoever in the age, race or clime receives Jesus Christ is saved.

(4) How appropriated. "Believeth on Him." This great salvation, which proceeded from the loving heart of God, is offered to whosoever will take it on the simple condition of receiving it.

(5) Its effects.

a. It issues in eternal life. Christ is the source of life. Those who receive Him are made partakers in that life. Therefore all who are in Christ have eternal life.

b. Saves from perishing. Those who accept Jesus Christ are eternally saved.

2. The World's Great Need (vv. 17-21). The world was under condemnation. It was without help to save itself. Christ, the great Savior and Deliverer, did not come to condemn the world. Its unbelief and rebellion placed it under condemnation.

Lions Trust Pass Streets

In the Belgian Congo Africa, although many miles of roads are paved, it is necessary for automobiles and other travelers to blow a horn at night to ward off lions and elephants. The lions are also unaware of savage citizens.

VERA

At this writing we are in the throes of the worst storm of the season. About all one can do in such weather, is try to keep warm—and strip tobacco; most of the tobacco in this section has been stripped and marketed; consequently keeping warm will be the "big job" around here.

We have heard of no serious results from the heavy sleet; but the devastation among shade and ornamental trees is great. The mail carriers have found it difficult to make their routes on schedule time on account of fallen trees and broken limbs which impede their way.

Homer Reynolds met with a serious accident about two weeks ago, in which he lost one of his eyes. While sawing wood the saw struck a knot and chipped off a piece of the hard wood which flew in Mr. Reynold's eye. He used local treatments, but when the eye got no better he went to Lynchburg to consult an eye specialist, who pronounced the sight gone. His many friends are sorry to hear of his misfortune.

The little 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spiggle, of Rock, died after a short illness of pneumonia. The sympathy of the community.

We regret to note the continued illness of Mrs. Walker Carnefix.

John Everett Childers is giving his cottage at Wilsway a coat of paint, preparatory to moving in with his bride, nee Miss Georgia Nuticombe.

"Well diggers' seem to be at a premium in this neighborhood—two wells have been started and after going down about 25 feet in each, rock was struck—also the well-diggers struck.

We would call the attention of the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, (who should have "frauis pia," or "F. P." added to his "D. D.") and others who deny the inspiration of the Bible, to the rapid fulfilment of its inspired prophecies:—we note that there has been established, the first in the history of the world a line of steamers direct from New York to Palestine, to start in March, to accomodate the thousands of methodox Jews now returning to their God-given home. When Jesus pronounced the end of God's favor to the Jews he said: "Your house (national life) is left unto you desolate". In Luke 21-24 a time was set, when Isreal as a nation should no longer be desolate; which time terminated in 1914—we call attention to the verses following the 24th and especially to verse 35. 1 Thess. 5th Chapter might also interest you.

Liberty Chapel

Winter has set in at last with snow, hail and rain.

Xmas passed away very quietly with little sickness during the holidays.

Miss Alma Smith spent the holidays with home folks.

Mrs. George Robertson had all her children at home Xmas except one, who was unable to get there.

Misses Florence and Pearl Carter spent the week-end with home people Xmas.

We are very glad to hear that Mrs. H. W. Kinney is out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ragland were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reynolds Xmas.

Misses Alice Patteson and Marie Trainnium of Richmond, spent the holidays with Mrs. Lula Beal.

Miss Minnie Robertson entertained on Friday night during Xmas with a dance. Everybody enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Alice Grow has returned to Roanoke, after spending some time with her sister, Miss Edna Megginson.

Miss Lorene Reynolds gave a very delightful birthday party last Friday night and the snow prevented very many attending, but those present reported a good time. Lorene come again with another birthday.

Joe Dowdy visited Dillard and Fred Robertson Xmas.

Miss Nelda Robertson and Walker Beale have flu.

PAMPLIN

The Xmas spirit was exemplified in the churches, where special programs were rendered and gifts distributed among the S. S. children and many organizations which carried the yuletide spirit of giving into the homes of baskets to brighten the holidays.

The young people have come and gone and many good wishes for them during 1925.

R. J. Thornton of Wilson, N. C., was the guest of his mother during Xmas. Mrs. Lillie Irving who teaches in Bedford visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irving.

Miss Janie Gilliam of Lynchburg, visited her father, J. H. Gilliam, and sister, Miss Ella Gilliam Xmas day.

Mrs. H. M. Wilson entertained last Friday and those pertaking of her hospitality were: Rev. and Mrs. C. R. James, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Duling.

Dr. Alfred James of Pittsburg, was guest of his parents during the holidays.

Mr. F. E. Walker of Scarboro, W. Va., was a visitor in town last week.

Miss Mary Beale and Joe Beale attended the funeral of their uncle, in Coatsville, Pa.

Mrs. Curtis Harvey spent a portion of the holidays with her parents at Phenix.

Mrs. Terry entertained on Tuesday for luncheon and those present were: Misses Mable Coock of Chapel Hill, N. C., Miss Bernice Terry of Burkeville, W. P. Terry and Eston Couch of Pamplin, Prof. West Booker of Pamplin.

Miss Mattie Moss a member of the Hixburg faculty of Hixburg school was Mrs. Terry's guest for the week-end.

Bill Franklin who has been ill for sometime is improving slowly. H. T. Terry Jr., is also recovering after a very serious illness.

Miss Ora Harvey has been visiting friends and relatives at Evergreen.

Phenix Harvey is carrying the mail on the Hixburg route now.

Misses Alice, Annie and Pearl Rainson entertained quite a number of friends on last Friday night week. There were about seventy guests present and they reported a most enjoyable time. And this gathering of friends and the good time they had will long be remembered.

We were very sorry Pat McPhilip's broke his car while on his way to Phenix for his "girl". Tom Hix came to his rescue and pulled his car into Pamplin. Tom must be the one "who lives in the house by the side of the road and is a friend to man". It is quite the fashion to be "stuck in the mud" around here. With the road Commissioner could have occasion to travel from here to Hixburg and other places
